

OF LOCAL INTEREST TO ALL.

Dr. Taylor, dentist, Peck Block.

New lot of boys' pants just received at J. A. Hendrick's.

F. E. Bond has bought of Adam Schantz a right of way over the latter's property west of the city for the electric road.

For fine neckwear, woods and material for Mountmellick work at the Ladies' Furnishing Store, Roxby building.

The building committee of the Baptist church met Tuesday evening and planned on the completion of the interior of the church.

J. C. Petrepher has the agency for the Oldmobile and can deliver machines twenty-four hours after receiving an order.

Geo. Tebo writes Major Bingham from Dover, Del., that he expected to visit Daytona, but is too busy selling farms to get away.

Wallace, the curio man, is overstocked, and the prices of leather sofa pillows are DOWN! now! down! He is selling them cheaper than New York market prices.

A letter from O. G. Robinson to Major Bingham brings the information that they are at Priest River, Idaho, and their many friends will be glad to know they are prospering.

If your shoes are nearly ended go to J. F. Sailer and get them mended. 232 South Beach street. J241

The musicale at the Baptist church last evening was a very pleasant affair and was well attended. Vocal selections were rendered by the Misses Schantz, Ludwig, Jacobs and several others.

Beautiful spring millinery in all the latest designs just received at Frank T. Peck's.

Tickets so far are going with a rush, as there are now over two hundred waiting for the advance sale to go on next Tuesday morning for the minstrel to be given by the Halifax Rifles.

A pair of "Black Beauty" shoes and stockings to match for $2.50 per pair at Moore Bros.

The Gazette-News had an appreciative call Wednesday from Capt. Leon Vann, one of the cleverest salts on the coast. Mr. Vann has a great talent for boat building. He built four last summer and has already contracted to build six the coming summer.

See Osco and his den of poisonous reptiles at the Street Carnival Feb. 24-28.

The new twin screw boat, Cherokee, has established a regular run up the Tomoka and to New Smyrna. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday the Tomoka runs north, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday the run is made south. Watch these columns for fuller announcement.

The latest styles in men's straw hats have just been received at J. A. Hendrick's. Call and see them.

L. P. Fox, of St. Joseph, Mich., who is stopping at the Palms, is the boss horse shoe pitcher of Daytona, having made two ringers at one pitch, then after two other pitches made another ringer, then at the last pitch in a game of twenty-five, made another ringer, making four ringers in one game.

Pictures framed to order at Barnes.

The young child of Geo. Barnett met with what might have been a fatal mishap a few days ago. Mrs. Barnett, with the child, was visiting at the home of her father, W. C. Sparks, when the little one found its way to the family medicine chest and drank several ounces of carbolic acid. The prompt assistance of two physicians saved the child's life and it is now past all danger.

The Granding Bakery will put up lunches for fishing parties on very short notice.

W. H. Peters has a raft duck caught by Leon Vann with hook and line at Palm Beach. He is perfectly gentle and gobbles up a big share of food every time it is handed out. Capt. Vann caught three ducks at one throw with a cast net once. He was watching quite a number feeding along some saw grass and when a number turned tail and went down, he made a rush and cutting his big maillet net succeeding in getting three.

Now is the time to buy shoes and clothing. See Moore Bros. ad.

The Brooklyn reached town again Tuesday, having left on her southern cruise January 8. On board were Edw. White, wife and son, and H. Schley, wife and daughter. While the party were at Palm Beach they were joined in their hunting and fishing for a day or so by W. H. Peters and son, Orville. Aside from some inconvenience occasioned by an occasional rough spell of weather, they report a good trip. Capt. Leon Vann was in charge of the boat.

TETLEY'S TEAS.

Tetley's famous London teas can be bought of E. T. Conrad & Co. at New York wholesale prices. Tetley's Teas are blended and packed in the bonded warehouse of Tetley in London, Eng., which assures you that you get them pure, direct from London. Every packet contains net weight, and guaranteed to be pure. J24 E. T. CONRAD & Co.

Souvenirs and Florida curios at Barnes.

C. A. Frech, one of our valued Ormond readers, was a pleasant caller Monday.

Cut price in dress goods at Moore Bros.

Attorney Parkinson transacted business before the Criminal Court at DeLand this week.

W. D. and blue print papers at Harris' studio.

The "Cherokee" returned Tuesday from Palm Beach where it took a party of tourists.

Kodak developing machines and supplies at Harris' studio.

Geo. Wray is away on a trip to Palatka, Orlando, Ocala and St. Augustine. He expects to be gone a month.

Shoes at half price at Moore Bros.

J. L. Wallace expects his mother and sister, Mrs. J. W. Erringer, of Chicago, to arrive tomorrow for a visit of several weeks.

Try the Flora Fina 10 cent cigar made in Daytona, Fla. W. T. LINDSEY & Co.

The rehearsals of the Halifax Rifles Minstrels for Friday, the 20th, are swell, and the boys promise a rare treat, with all special scenery.

Don't forget Moore Bros.' closing sale of clothing.

President Grover Cleveland passed through Daytona Sunday en route to Stuart, where he will handle the rod and reel for a few days.

Platinum photos and new styles of mounts at the Harris Studio. Call up phone 91.

Mrs. C. M. Bingham, Jr., Mrs. Robert L. Smith and Miss Grace Bingham enjoyed a very pleasant trip to New Smyrna Monday on the "Uncle Sam."

Delightful ice cream at Mills' cafe.

R. S. Fish and wife left Sunday for their home in Ithaca, N. Y., after spending a few months in Daytona visiting with their daughter, Mrs. James Lovelock.

Try our Royal Smoke 5 cent cigar made in Daytona, Fla. W. T. LINDSEY & Co.

Without doubt one of the busiest men in Daytona is J. L. Odum, proprietor of the Northern Meat Market. His business has more than doubled over last year, compelling him to employ three assistants.

Crockery, china and glassware at Barnes.

Masons are steadily at work on the addition to the stone wall around C. G. Burgoyne's grounds. When completed Mr. Burgoyne will have the prettiest place in this section of Florida and one that will command the admiring gaze of every visitor to Daytona.

For sale, a 6 room cottage and two lots, 80 feet front on Cottage avenue, at a bargain. Inquire of E. L. Bond.

J. B. Conrad, of Glenwood, who has been suffering very much with his foot, which was crushed by a heavy timber last summer, has been in St. Augustine at the hospital for some time. He is reported to be progressing very nicely, much to the joy of his many friends in Daytona.

Winter dress goods at cost at Moore Bros.

During the past few days two important real estate transfers have occurred. J. E. Rush sold his lot on the south side of Bay street to C. G. Burgoyne, and he then purchased the lot opposite of J. W. Henderson. Mr. Rush has moved his store building onto his newly acquired possessions.

Special low prices on blankets, comforts and quilts at Moore Bros.

A large party from Jessamine county, Kentucky, about thirty in number, were in town Tuesday taking in the points of interest. They came up by boat. The following delegation gave the Gazette-News a brief call: Willis M. Hise, Miss Verna Mitchell, L. S. Fitzhugh, Miss Jessamine Rutherford, Miss Ida Demaree and W. B. Glass.

Call phone 70 for stove wood, Daytona Novelty Works.

Mayor Wallace has been trying to bring J. C. Moore back to Ormond to answer a theft. Moore passed a bogus check on Park National Bank, New York. The check was supposed to have been drawn by W. W. Gordon & Co., St. Augustine, and in order to get the money on it, he induced his landlady, Mrs. Frank Mason, to endorse it. Mrs. Mason is out $50, and another scoundrel goes unchanged.

The Granding Bakery bread is health bread because it is absolutely free from anything injurious.

Leon Ellenwood took a party of ten to the Inlet on a fishing trip Monday, and what they did for the blue fish was certainly enough. The fish bit so well and so fine a catch was made that all will likely want to go down again. The following composed the party: Mr. and Mrs. Snider, Mrs. and the Misses Tichenor, Mr. Zoller, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Mr. Miller. They went down in the White Wings, and brought back plenty of fish.

Silk remnants at Moore Bros.

Artists' supplies at Barnes.

Maples and elms are coming into bloom, showing signs of spring.

Misses Anna and Maud Thomas, of Paris, Ill., are staying with Mrs. Benedict on Ridgewood avenue.

Whole wheat bread at the Granding Bakery every day.

T. O. Melton and A. A. Bunnell are making preparations for putting in a set of large boat ways at the north end of town.

New souvenir orange knives at Clark's.

Mrs. H. T. Howard and three children departed Sunday for DeLand, where they are visiting with relatives and friends.

A beautiful line of shell goods of all kinds at Clark's jewelry and stationery store.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jones, of Cairo, N. Y., are very pleasantly quartered at Troy House. They expect to remain in Daytona for several weeks.

Neville H. Clark, our young resident optician, is well equipped with the best optical instruments and well prepared to fit eyes.

Robert White, in the employ of the Daytona Novelty Works, cut his foot very seriously with an ax Tuesday. The wound will lay him up several weeks.

One of the prettiest displays of spring millinery ever exhibited in Daytona may be seen at Frank T. Peck's.

Melton & Cameron are making rapid progress on the canal from the club house to the channel of the Halifax River. It will be completed in about two weeks.

Sam Corngold, the tailor, located at the Globe, does first-class work on cleaning, repairing and pressing ladies' and gents' garments. Prices reasonable. Phone 71.

Mrs. Josephine Cook, Mrs. Pauline Williams and Mrs. P. L. Gibbs, of Clinton, Iowa, are located for the rest of the season in one of Mrs. Geo. H. Clark's sunny south rooms.

Moore Bros. bought too many blankets and bed quilts and are offering special bargains in that line.

Howard & Morrison have purchased the White Bakery outfit and will move it to North Beach street where they will conduct it in connection with their grocery. They expect to have the bakery in operation Tuesday.

Examine our stock of shirt waists before purchasing elsewhere.

J. A. HENDRICKS.

It is but common decency for those that use the Ormond Hotel Cabin on the upper Tomoka for picnics to leave it clean. The Cherokee party of Wednesday swept the cabin clean for the next party. Will others follow suit?

Call at Barnes' for first class stationery.

Rev. J. R. Troxel, the newly appointed pastor of the First M. E. church, will preach his introductory sermon tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. Troxel comes to Daytona from the Southwest Indiana conference.

Mrs. L. E. Bailey, of New York City, who recently lectured in Daytona, has won a great success for the temperance cause all along the East Coast. At Miami she gave four lectures to crowded houses and gained fifty two new members, and at West Palm Beach she did equally well.

E. J. Arnold & Co., the St. Louis turf investors, announced Wednesday that they had no money on hand to pay depositors, who are clamoring for their money. They claim, however, to have plenty of assets. It has been asked that a receiver be appointed to take charge of their business, so says an Associated Press dispatch.

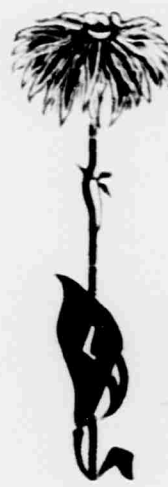

A M. E. Porter informs us that one shipment of oranges he made to New York by steamer express arrived in a frozen and rotten condition. The New York Packer, under date of Feb. 7 says: "Any price would have bought a lot of Florida oranges which were opened up in the day street auction rooms Wednesday. The show room was filled with the stock, which was rotten and mashed, some boxes showing up in a terrible condition." This state of affairs is no doubt caused by the steamship people carrying the oranges on the deck when they should be stored below.

CHICAGO LADY STARS VS. HALIFAX RIFLES BALL TEAM

Tuesday, Feb. 17th.

We've Bought a Bakery.

We take this method of announcing to the public that we have purchased the outfit of the White Bakery and will have it in operation at our North Beach Street stand Tuesday.

We will have a thoroughly competent baker, and will furnish delicious bread, pies, cakes and other dainties. Give us a call.

Howard & Morrison The NORTH BEACH STREET GROCERS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Douglass are the happy parents of a daughter, which was born last Friday.

Wanted, a white man to attend invalid gentleman at night. Apply to Mr. J. W. Cumbis at Troy House, between 10 and 11 a. m. or 3 and 5 p. m. References required.

The Gazette-News had an appreciative call Wednesday from R. M. Mallory, one of the representative citizens of Seabreeze. Our latch string is always out, Mr. Mallory.

Rev. William Ashmead Schaeffer, D. D. had the misfortune to break his left ankle Tuesday. The reverend gentleman has not been feeling very well for some time and while in the bath room Tuesday morning slipped. It is presumed that in falling his ankle doubled under him, causing the fracture.

Mrs. E. A. Hobbs, of Watertown, Mass., Mrs. F. O. Wells and daughter, Miss Dorothy, and Mrs. J. E. Dutton, of Greenfield, Mass., are a pleasant party domiciled at the home of the editor. The ladies are delighted with the beauties of Daytona and expect to remain till late in the season.

Hon. E. T. Young and family departed yesterday for Washington, where Mr. Young has some legal business to attend to from there they go to their home at Appleton, Minnesota. Mr. Young expressed himself as more than pleased with our beautiful city, and expects to return next winter.

The Home Dairy

First Class Jersey Milk Aerated, Bottled and Delivered.

W. J. HARDING, Proprietor

334 South Ridgewood.

Webster's Curio Bazaar is having great interest for tourists, and every day is adding to the attractions, and the interest, Beach street, opposite Halifax River Yacht Club.

Messrs. Waite and Frame, proprietors of the Grand Atlantic, tendered an informal hop to their guests and a number of about-town friends Thursday evening. It is needless to say that all present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Master Hugh McLaughlin Courtney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Courtney, and grandson of "Boss" McLaughlin, celebrated his fourth birthday Tuesday. His father "put up" a beautiful birthday cake, and in the evening a pyrotechnical display was given in front of the Grand Atlantic in honor of the little gentleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Stevens are greeting their many old time friends in Daytona this week. Mr. Stevens is the publisher of the Claremont Herald, one of the leading newspapers of Virginia. They came to the State with the Virginia Press Association, and took the opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Call phone 70 for stove wood, Daytona Novelty Works.

The Dana Thompson Carnival Co. will give a grand street exhibition in Daytona February 24-28 inclusive. They will bring with them Samson, the 27-foot snake; Esquimaux village, the Little World, Hall of Mysteries, Etc.

Jacksonville newspapers report a big list of tourist en-route south.